

Biography

Judge Frank A. Iannotti

The Honorable Frank A. Iannotti is currently the presiding criminal judge in the Ansonia-Milford Judicial District. He was appointed a Superior Court Judge by Gov. John G. Rowland and was sworn in on March 8, 1996. Since then, he has been a criminal judge in several judicial districts, including Ansonia-Milford, Fairfield, Waterbury, Danbury, Middletown, New Haven and New Britain. He has also served as presiding judge over criminal cases in all of the judicial districts where he has been assigned.

In 2010, Judge Iannotti received the Greater Bridgeport Bar Association's Judge of the Year Award. He also served as president of the Connecticut Judges Association from 2009-2010. In addition, Judge Iannotti has served in other capacities, including: as a member of the Judicial Evaluations Committee in 2010, during which time he co-chaired the High Volume Courts Committee; as an alternate, member and/or chair of the Sentence Review Division from 1999-2010; as an alternate member of the Judicial Review Council from 2005-2006; and as co-chair of the Victim Advisory Council from 2000-2004.

Before being appointed to the bench, Judge Iannotti worked as a Superior Court clerk from 1981-1982; for the Office of the Chief State's Attorney from 1982-1985; for the New Haven State's Attorney's Office from 1985-1987; and for the law firm of O'Donnell & Iannotti from 1987-1994. From July 1994 to March 1996, he had his own law firm, Law Offices of Frank Iannotti.

Judge Iannotti received his Juris Doctor from the University of Baltimore Law School. He graduated from Boston College in 1976 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science and philosophy.